

TNRCC REGULATORY GUIDANCE

Industrial & Hazardous Waste Division

RG-222

April 1996

SUBJECT: STOP -- You May Not Need to Fill Out Industrial & Hazardous Waste Forms

- STEP 1. Look at the left-hand column of the table to find your waste generation category (how much hazardous waste you generate).
- STEP 2. Read across the table to find out if you need identification or registration numbers.
- STEP 3. If you need registration numbers, please complete the appropriate forms (see back for a listing of forms) and return them to us at the address noted on the TNRCC form.
- STEP 4. If your facility is an industrial Conditionally Exempt Small Quantity Generator (CESQG) that generates less than 100kg/month of Class 1 waste AND is already registered with us, please send us a letter and we will inactivate your registration. In that letter, please include your five-digit state solid waste registration number and a statement identifying your facility as an industrial CESQG that generates less than 100 kg/month of Class 1 waste. (See 30 TAC §335.78 for information on CESQGs.)
- STEP 5. If you have questions or need assistance with these forms, please contact us at (512) 239-6832.

* Instead of ordering and filling out the paper version of these forms, you may want to investigate the possibility of using the Industrial and Hazardous Waste Division's electronic notification and reporting system known as "STEERS." By using STEERS you can reduce the time and paperwork associated with many of your notification and reporting tasks. For more information on STEERS, please call (512) 239-6925.

If your facility is nonindustrial, only register your hazardous waste. You do not register your nonhazardous waste with the Industrial & Hazardous Waste Program.

Notification forms can be obtained by contacting the Industrial & Hazardous Waste Division at (512) 239-6832. Forms also will soon be available through the Internet at www.tnrcc.state.tx.us.
